WEST WITH THE MILHOUS AND NIXON FAMILIES

2038374

Purch order 3-1772

The story of the Milhous and Nixon families is the story of America. America was settled by people who went westward from Europe in search of freedom. They left the Old Country after saying farewell to their friends and relatives; and after a long and tiresome voyage arrived at the Promised Land.

Thomas Milhous	born	1699 Ireland	James Nixon	born	? ?
William		1738 Penna	George		1752 Del
William Jr		1783 Penna	George Jr		1790 Del
Joshua Vickers		1820 Ohio	George III		1821 Penna
Franklin		1848 Ohio	Samuel Brady		1847 Penna
Hannah		1885 Ind m	Francis Anthony		1878 Ohio

The Milhous family - Quakers - left County Kildare in Ireland and came to Chester County, Penna - seeking religious freedom in Penn's colony, as did so many other Quakers. The origin of the Nixons is not known at present, although they likely came from Ireland, too. In England the name Nixon is commonest in two areas: one centering on Staffordshire, the other on Cumberland. A number of Nixons moved from Staffordshire to County Wexford in Ireland. There were Nixons living in Liddesdale, Dumfriesshire, Scotland in 1547. A number of English and Scotch lived in Ireland a number of years before coming to America.

It is unusual that all the known ancestors of Vice-President Richard Milhous Nixon came from Pennsylvania or nearby sections of Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey; also that, except for the Trimmers, they were all of British origin, over half of them Quakers. A number were Quaker ministers. Some suffered persecution for their Quaker beliefs. Among the names represented are:

Scothorn, Gibbons, Lewis, Taylor, Baldwin, Brown, Miller, Vickers, Dillon, Mendenhall, Griffith, Hussey, Price, Burdg, Mathews, Hemingway, Malmsbury, Lightfoot, Johnson, Burson, Potts and Lester.

Among the places from which ancestors came are: Ireland - County Kildare; Wales - Narberth, Pembrokeshire; England - Oxton, Nottinghamshire. Parividge, Derbyshire. Little Leigh, Cheshire. Cambridgeshire. Leicestershire.

On May 29-1729 a certificate was issued by the Dublin Quaker Meeting to Thomas Milhous, wife Sarah, their three small children, and Sarah's parents, James and Catharine Miller. These folks were about to sail for Penna. A copy of the certificate is still in possession of the family. It says that Thomas and Sarah were late of Timahoe, that they had been educated by their parents in religion and had been members of Quaker meetings. Timahoe is a little village in County Kildare about 25 miles west of Dublin. A present day account by Mrs Anna McCormick says:

> There is a Quaker's graveyard in Timahoe. I have made extensive enquiries. Nobody has ever heard of the name Milhous. The cemetery is very ancient and nobody has been buried there for at least 100 years. There are no tombstones, but the graves can be seen quite clearly. I have been informed that there was a house adjacent to the cemetery, where Quakers assembled. The ruins of this building existed up to a few years ago.

Thomas Milhous settled in 1729 in New Garden, Chester Co, moving to Pikeland in 1744.

Twenty miles to the south of the Thomas Milhous family lived

Mr James Nixon, with his wife Mary, and sons, George and James, and daughters, Elizabeth, Mary, Catharine, and Jean. They lived on a farm just over the Delaware line in New Castle Co - Brandywine Hundred. It is not known where James Nixon came from. He may have been one of the thousands who went from Ireland to Philadelphia in the 1730s and 1740s. He was living in 1752 in Brandywine Hundred (about 5 miles north of Wilmington and 15 west of Phila) when his son, George was born.

The only source of information about James Nixon is his will written May 16-1773 and probated June 26-1775. In it James Nixon "of Brandywine Hundred in the County of Newcastle upon Delaware" makes these bequests:
To his wife Mary 60 pounds in cash "besides the third of the benefit of the place where I now live and bed and bedding and furniture for one room".
To his three married daughters money; 45 pounds in all.
To Jean 60 pounds in cash "now in the hand of the Revd Mr Smith of Pequea besides a horse and saddle and bed". Mr Smith was a Presbyterian minister who conducted an academy at Pequea, Lancaster Co, Pa. This may indicate that James was of Scotch-Irish ori-
To George "the plantation where John Reely formerly lived" (gin. 106 acres and 70 pounds cash.
To James Jr "the plantation whereon I now live containing one hundred acres" and his Negro man Ned and Negro woman Nance.
Two months after James Sr died, his son George was married to Sarah Seeds in Holy Trinity Church, Wilmington (Aug 17-1775).

The story of the Nixon family can best be told by telling the stories of the two Georges: George Nixon Sr who served in the Revolution under Washington and who at the age of 90 was a pioneer in western Ohio; his grandson, George Nixon III, who often heard of the stirring Revolutionary days from his grandfather and who died in the battle of Gettysburg in 1863. The pension records of these men are found in the National Archives at Washington, D C.

In 1833 George Nixon Sr related his services:
Dec 1776 - Mar 1777. Ensign (carried the colors) under Capt George Evans in the New Castle Co militia. His company was marched "to an encampment not far from Trenton New Jersey where they were stationed at the time General Washington crossed the Delaware and surprized and captured the Hessians stationed at that place. Immediately on his return the body of Militia to which this deponent belonged joined the Army of Washington, recrossed the River with him and were stationed with him at said Trenton on the memorable 2d of January 1777 when the British marched to attack the Americans. This deponent is old and frail but well recollects the whole scene then displayed. After renewing the fires about midnight the American troops were silently withdrawn and after gaining a position in the enemy's rear were marched towards Princeton, near which place early next morning they met the rear of the British troops where a battle was fought and the latter defeated, in which this deponent bore his share to the best of his skill and understanding as Ensign in said Company and has now in his possession the very Sword and Spontoon (half-pike) by him carried on that occasion." Statement made 1833 before Clinton Co Court by George Nixon of Clark Twp. His sons Seeds and Francis remembered seeing their father's uniform. The Del Archives verify the services.

Aug 1777 - Oct 1777. Ensign under Capt Evans. Sept 11 in battle of Brandywine near his home.
Oct 1777 - Jul 1778. Lieutenant under Capt David McKee to spy and scout against the British in Philadelphia.

The "go West" fever which affected the United States for a century and a half led George Nixon Sr and his wife and children, including George Jr, to move to the outskirts of the little town of Washington, Penna in 1803. On Oct 18 George Nixon paid $1600 for a 224 acre farm in a pleasant little valley at the southern edge of Washington - then a town of 800. This was the western limit of permanent settlements for in that year Ohio became a state. A few years later the National Pike was run through the town - it ran just over the hill from the Nixon farm. No doubt the Nixons saw President Monroe on his visit in 1817 and Lafayette in 1825. Many famous travellers used the Road.

In 1807 George Nixon Jr married Hannah Wilson, daughter of Wm Wilson, a blacksmith and wagon-maker in Washington - also a local Methodist preacher. The Wilsons were natives of Delaware and may have known the Nixons there. Hannah's mother was Eleanor Scothorn - descendant of the Quaker Robert Scothorn, who came from Nottinghamshire to Philadelphia in 1682. In 1951 a tablet to his memory was unveiled in the Parish Church of St Peter and St Paul at Oxton, near Newark, England. Today a card under the tablet names Richard Nixon as a descendant. George and Hannah became staunch members of what is now First Methodist Church, Washington. Their names are listed on the old church records. At first they attended the little log meeting house; it was replaced in 1816 by a brick church. Besides attending worship each Sunday at 10, Hannah attended a women's class Fridays at 3 and George a men's Sun at 12.

George Nixon Sr sold 61 acres of his farm to William Wilson in 1824; 45 to George Jr in 1825; and the rest in 1830. He and his 3 sons George Jr, Francis and Seeds all lived on the farm at various times. In fact, when a new road was to be laid out in 1826, George and his sons appeared in court to protest, saying that it was injurious to the Nixon farm. George's house stood upon a bank and the road was located immediately below it so as to injure the foundation. It also cut through his field. So the road was run along a hill-top instead of through the farm. In 1830 George Nixon Sr, then 78, moved to Clinton Co, Ohio.

The westward movement affected the Milhous family, too. In 1805 two years after the Nixons left Del, William Milhous and wife and family, including William Jr, moved from Chester Co to Belmont Co in eastern Ohio, settling in the Quaker colony at Coleraine and joining Concord Monthly Meeting. Strangely enough this was only 30 miles west of the Nixons, so once again the two families were in the same area. William Milhous Sr died in Belmont Co in 1825; William Jr died in Belmont in 1874. Joshua Milhous, son of Wm Jr, in 1847 travelled east to the Quaker colony at Westland, 15 miles east of Washington, Pa. Here he took for his bride, Elizabeth Price Griffith. She died in California in 1923 at the age of 96. She was still a Quaker preacher at 90. The Griffiths had been Quakers at Warrington, York Co, Pa - the Prices at Gunpowder, Balt Co, Md. The first Quaker meeting house at Westland was built in 1785 - today only the cemetery remains. Here at Westland attended the Burdg family, who had come from Shrewsbury, Monmouth Co, NJ. They later moved to Columbiana Co, Ohio and Jennings Co, Ind. Joshua's son Franklin married a Burdg. George Nixon III, son of George and Hannah, moved to Vinton Co, O in 1853; Joshua Milhous to Jennings Co, Ind in 1854 - so for the third time the two families moved west. The fourth was to Calif about 1900 where Joshua's granddau and George's gdson married.

In 1830 George Nixon Sr bought a farm in Washington Twp, Clinton Co, Ohio - he sold it 9 years later. The last record of him is Mar 11-1842 when he appeared before the mayor of Cincinnati and presented his certificate to prove that he was a pensioner. He received $25 from the Commercial Bank of Cincinnati, his pension for the 6 mos ending Mar 4-1842. He probably died soon after. In 1833 George Nixon Jr and family moved from the Nixon farm where George III had been born in 1821 to Smith Twp, near Midway, Washington Co, Pa. While living here George III met Margaret Ann Trimmer, dau of Anthony Trimmer, b Juniata Co, Pa, and Margaret Hunt, b England. The Trimmers lived in New Jersey before 1775. George and Margaret were married Jan 10-1843 at the home of Mrs John Scothorn, George's sister, in South Strabane Twp, Wash Co by Rev Thomas M Hudson, Methodist Presiding Elder. In 1844 George Jr and family left Smith Twp, probably for Ohio. In 1853 George III and family moved from Midway to Elk Twp, Vinton Co. On Nov 9-1861 he was mustered into service at Waverly, Pike Co as a private in Co B, 73rd Regiment of Ohio Infantry. He was a farmer, 40 years old, 5½ ft tall, brown eyes, light complexion and hair. His regiment arrived at Gettysburg 2 pm Jul 1-1863 and went into position near what is now the Natl Cemetery. Jul2there was sharpshooting and Jul 3 they were under battery fire. George was fatally wounded and died a few days later. His grave, not far from where Lincoln spoke Nov 19-1863, is in Sec C, Grave 4, Ohio Lot. The stone in two lines reads GEORGE NIXON CO.B. REGT.73.

Nixon left a widow, who survived him for 20 months, and eight children 3 to 19 in age. Only in a democracy could his great-grandson have become Vice-President. Richard Nixon, 90 years after his greatgrandfather's death, placed flowers on the grave. One of George III's sons, Samuel Brady Nixon, born near Midway, 15 miles west of Pittsburgh, in 1847, was 15 when his father died. In 1873 he married Sarah Ann Wadsworth, daughter of Thomas Wadsworth who kept a country store. Sarah's grandfather, Robert, had moved from Maryland to Ohio in 1837. Samuel and his wife lie buried in a little country cemetery at Mount Pleasant, Vinton Co, Ohio. Their son, Francis Anthony Nixon went to Cal in 1907.

Joshua Milhous and wife and children moved from Short Creek Monthly Meeting, Belmont Co, Ohio to Driftwood Monthly Meeting, Jennings Co, Indiana in 1854. Joshua died in 1893. In 1897 his son, Franklin Milhous, pioneered again and moved his family to Whittier, California - near the city of Los Angeles, then under 100,000. Franklin's daughter, Hannah met Frank Nixon at a Quaker meeting and they were married in 1908. Today their son, Richard Milhous Nixon, is Vice-President of the United States. The story of the Milhous and Nixon families - ever moving westward - is a typical American story.

13. Catherine b 1828 m1 --- Tuten, m2 --- Easton 14.15. d young
16. Samuel Trimmer b 1834 d Vinton Co, Ohio Son: Dallas

Paul Trimmer who came to Washington Co, Pa in 1802 was the son of Anthony Trimmer who died in Morris Co, N J in 1754. Anthony was probably a son of John Trimmer (Johannes Tremer) who died February 1750 in Amwell Twp, Hunterdon Co, N J. John left 12 children: Matthias (Tys), Anthony (Toenis), Andrew (moved to York Co, Pa), George, Herbert, Anna, Christina, William, John, Nicholas, Judith, Henry. John Sr was of Dutch or German origin, judging by the spelling of the names. Two of the witnesses to Anthony's will signed in German.

A number of German families moved from Hunterdon Co, N J to central Penna to what are now Decatur Twp, Mifflin Co and Fermanagh Twp, Juniata Co about 1775. We find Anthony Sr's two sons in Juniata Co in 1778. They both served in the Revolution - 4th Battalion later 7th Battalion of Cumberland Co militia. Anthony in 1778 under Capt David Boal; Paul in 1778 under Capt James McConnell and in 1780 under Capt Hugh McAllister. In 1798 Anthony Jr moved to Yates Co, N Y along Seneca Lake. In 1802 Paul moved to Smith Twp, Washington Co, Pa.

The Trimmer traditions published in 1904 by David Trimmer (Anthony, Anthony, Paul, Anthony) said that Paul was born in New Jersey near Black Oak Ridge; that he served in the Revolution; that in central Pa he lived near Jacks Mountain. The tradition was that Anthony Jr went to a lake in the woods (Seneca Lake) and that Paul and Anthony had a half-brother, Isaiah Fairclo. Anthony Jr took Thomas Fairclo for his guardian in 1770 in N J. An Isaiah Fairclo was living in Morris Co, N J in 1801. Paul Trimmer was said to have been a sailor as a young man in New Jersey.

The tradition that Paul Trimmer married Jane Wayne, a sister of Anthony Wayne is incorrect. The Wayne family records show no Trimmer. Paul did in fact marry Jane McElwain. The name Anthony was a Trimmer name before Anthony Wayne was born.

Anthony Jr and Paul went from New Jersey to Juniata Co about 1775. About 1784 Paul moved over the mountain to what is now Decatur Twp - along Jacks Mt. Anthony may have gone to York Co for a while where his uncle, Andrew lived. Anthony was back near Paul in 1798 when he moved to New York state.

The original spelling of the Trimmer name is not known. The N J Archives, Pa Archives and 1790 Census give helpful data. Also the Hocking Valley (Ohio) History and the account prepared in 1904 by David Trimmer (3 typed sheets).

The Nixon connection with the Trimmers is:
Richard Milhous Nixon
Francis Anthony Nixon m Hannah Milhous
Samuel Brady Nixon (1847-1914) m Sarah Ann Wadsworth (1852-86)
George Nixon (1821-1863) m Margaret Ann Trimmer (1826-1865)
Anthony Trimmer (1784-1841) m Margaret Hunt (1804-1876)
Paul Trimmer (1750-1825) m Jane McElwain
Anthony Trimmer (d 1754) m Elizabeth ---
John Trimmer (d 1750)

THE NIXON CHART

This chart shows that most of Vice-President Richard Milhous Nixon's ancestors came from southeastern Pennsylvania, and nearby northern Maryland, northern Delaware, and southern New Jersey. All of his mother's ancestors were Quakers and one line - Scothorn - of his father's was Quaker.

Only one line is of German or Dutch origin - the Trimmer. The tradition that Paul Trimmer married Jane Wayne, a sister of Anthony Wayne, is not correct. Paul married Jane McElwain; and his father, brother and son were Anthony. Anthony was a Trimmer name before Anthony Wayne was born.

All the grandparents, all the great-grandparents, and all but three of the great-great-grandparents of the Vice-President lived at one time in Ohio. Four great-grandparents were born near Washington, Pennsylvania. The Nixons came from Delaware, stopping in Penna for 50 years; the Wadsworths came from Maryland; the Milhous' from Penna; and the Burdg's came from New Jersey, stopping in Penna for thirty some years. The Milhous and Burdg families pushed on to Indiana.
